

SMS HANDBOOK

INTRODUCTION

This handbook is a general description of a few of the most important rules and policies that govern our school. It would be impossible to address all rules and policies within this handbook. In the final analysis, each principal will address rules and regulations on a case by case basis. It is our goal to provide the best education possible and keep our students and faculty members safe. In addition, it is our goal to provide a classroom setting that is characterized by high expectations in academic teaching and learning.

WELCOME

Welcome to the home of the SMS Tigers where spirit and tradition are the bywords of a school in which the entire community takes pride. While increasing your knowledge and developing your skills, your major responsibility while at SMS will be to respect your fellow students, teachers, and staff members. They in return should respect you. No individual at SMS has the right or privilege to infringe on or deny the right of another individual.

ATTENDANCE PROCEDURE

Regular attendance is a must. No single factor will do more to aid your progress in school than regular attendance. While a student is enrolled in school, his number one job is attending classes regularly and fulfilling all class requirements. Excessive absences, even though excused, are bound to affect one's grades. Any student missing more than twelve days per semester will not receive credit for those classes in which they missed more than twelve days. Admits must be picked up in the principal's office before the 8:10 bell.

ATTENDANCE PROCEDURE

Excused Absence – Excused absences will be granted for the following reasons: illnesses, medical appointments, (Please try to make after school appointments), legal matters, extenuating circumstances deemed necessary by the principal. PARENTS SHOULD CALL BEFORE 8:30 A.M. THE DAY THE STUDENT IS TO BE ABSENT. Being late by 15 minutes or more will result in a absence for that period.

ATTENDANCE PROCEDURE

Unexcused Absence – Unexcused absences are any that do not fall within one of the above Categories. Examples of unexcused absences: Picking up lunch, haircuts, or birthdays.

ATTENDANCE PROCEDURE

Truancy – Issued when the student is absent without approval of parents and/or is found to have lied about an excuse. First Offense – 1 Day of in-school detention. Second Offense – 3 days of in-school detention. Third Offense – 5 days of out-of-school suspension.

ATTENDANCE PROCEDURE

Tardies – Students who are tardy will need an admit from the office. Three unexcused tardies will be required to spend one period of after school detention. Students will be required to make their detention up the next day. Being late fifteen minutes or more will constitute an absence in that class.

Make-up Work

Students will be allowed one full day to make up work for each day missed after returning to classes. Make-up work is permitted for excused and activity absences only. Students knowing they will be absent prior to an activity will be required to make their work up before the activity. (Teacher discretion). Failure to do so will result in the student not being excused from class for the activity in that class or organization.

Appeals Committee

Will consist of an administrator, counselor, and three (3) faculty members. Purpose of the committee will be to hear an appeal by the parent/guardian concerning the child's violation of the absentee policy. The committee will render decision and if the parent/guardian is not satisfied he or she has the right to appeal to the Stroud Board of Education

Illness at School

If you should need special care at school due to some condition such as: diabetes, epilepsy, asthma, etc., we will be able to give you special attention if you will give us the necessary information before the emergency arises. If you become ill during the day, you should go to the office so that your parents can be notified and your absence cleared.

PRINTED MATERIAL

All printed or written materials, signs or posters not sponsored by SPS must have clearance through the principal's office. Failure of student to obtain proper clearance may constitute disciplinary action.

Principals, in conjunction with sponsors, coaches or other persons in charge of extracurricular activities, may regulate dress and grooming of students who participate in a particular activity if the principal reasonably believes that the student's dress or grooming creates a hazard, or may prevent, interfere with, or adversely affect the purpose, direction, or effort required for the activity to achieve its goals. If a student's dress or grooming is objectionable under the above provisions, the principal shall request the student to make appropriate corrections. If the student declines, the principal shall notify the student's parents or legal guardian and request that person to make the necessary corrections. If both the student and parent or legal guardian refuse, the principal shall take appropriate disciplinary action. PLAGIARISM AND COPYING

Plagiarism and copying are cheating. Plagiarism is defined as using any previous written or published articles and representing them as your own. If an author is not given credit for his or her work then the student is guilty of plagiarism. Examples of this would be copying a passage directly out of the encyclopedia, copying a passage directly out of a text book, downloading a paper from the internet, or buying a paper from someone and submitting as your own, etc...This is a dishonest practice and is the same as stealing and lying.

Grade of zero (0) for all work resulting from the cheating/plagiarism for the student and any student who assisted the student to cheat.

No credit will be transferred until the student has legally withdrawn. The principal reserves the right to contact parents before official withdrawal is completed.

DROPPING A SUBJECT

If it seems wise for a student to drop a subject, he should have a conference with the counselor first to see if the change is advisable. If the counselor approves, he should discuss the change with his or her parents and bring written approval from his parents to the counselor. Classes may be dropped only the first five days of each semester. (Note: See Athletes Terminating Participation During a Season)

ATHLETES TERMINATING PARTICIPATION DURING A SEASON

1. Students who quit or are removed from a sport after the first game of that sport has been played will receive an “F” on their nine weeks report card for that nine week period. Students may not participate in formal workouts or off-season of the next sport until the conclusion of the sport they quit or are removed. (Note: See exception Part D)

3. An athlete may make a schedule change at semester without adversely affecting his/her grade, but may not participate in formal practices in the next sport until the completion of the sport they quit or was terminated.
4. Students who begin participation in a sport in which a game of the succeeding season is played within 5 school days of the close of the immediately preceding season will be allowed 5 school days from the close of the immediately preceding season to terminate their participation and not receive an “F” for the nine weeks. If participation is terminated within the aforementioned 5 school day period the student may enter another sport or go to the off-season of their next sport. Practices during any school break (M-F) will count toward the 5 school day period referenced above.

Suspension Appeals

All students who have been suspended out of school have a right to appeal the out-of-school suspension decision of the administration. Appellate rights in such short-term (9 days or less) are satisfied in an effective and expedient manner by giving the student the right to appeal to a suspension committee. The parent shall notify the Superintendent of Schools of the intent to appeal by letter which must be received within two (2) calendar days after the principal's out of school suspension decision is received by the student or his or her parents. After such time, the out-of-school suspension decision will become final and non-appealable. Upon receiving notice of intent to appeal, the Superintendent shall confirm that the student's out of school suspension falls within the category of an out-of-school suspension to which an appeal to the committee is authorized.

Suspensions of 9 days or less have two appeals. First to the superintendent of schools and secondly to an appointed appeals committee whose decision will be final. Suspensions of ten days or more have three appeals: The superintendent of schools, an appeals committee, and the board of education whose decision will be final. All visitors (including parents/legal guardians) must check in at the principal's office immediately upon entering the building.

BEHAVIOR AND DISCIPLINE

Good behavior is a major importance in any classroom. A student should have a sincere desire to work and cooperate with the teacher to the best of his ability. Unfortunately, some students don't agree with this and their behavior becomes disruptive to the educational welfare of the class. In some cases, students will be sent to the office by the teacher. The following policy will be used to handle cases of any student being removed from class by the teacher. First dismissal will result in a conference with the principal in the office. There is also a possibility of a detention being assigned. Second dismissal will result in a three-day detention from that class to be spent in the ISD. A conference with the teacher, principal and parent will be held. Third dismissal will result in a three to five day in-school detention from all classes. Parents will be notified of detentions. Fourth dismissal: Student will be suspended from school for a period of three to five days. Additional dismissals will result in indefinite suspension from school.

STROUD PUBLIC SCHOOL FIGHT POLICY

Introduction/Philosophy/Rationale

It is the belief of this administration that our school should have the highest expectations regarding the educational process of our students. We believe that our teachers and students should work together, follow the rules set forth by our policies and benefit from our high morals and expectations. We believe that students should be prepared for class and conduct themselves in a manner that promotes a quality educational system. We believe that students should be mannerly in their conduct when dealing with problems. Our faculty and administrators are considered to be highly professional and well trained in the education of our students.

We believe that students should work through problems in a respectful and mannerly method. At no time should students harass or bully any student or school official in any way whether it be sexual, racial, physical appearance, or in any manner. In addition, students should never threaten school employees or students even to the slightest degree. To accept such conduct from one student would simply allow all students to behave in this manner. This type of behavior, if not corrected would flourish in the classrooms, hallways, and administrative offices. It is the belief that we should all work together to insure the ideal school; a school where students and teachers work together. Students who learn to accept the many cultural differences of a society that continues to grow together yet apart based on belief and cultural differences. Our goal is to provide a school where students are well prepared for class and respect teachers and administrators. A school in which people work together in resolving issues not by raising their voices or making threats or teasing or harassing each other. The conduct of our students in our school is of the utmost importance to teaching. It is this conduct that sets the climate of education. Naturally, all teachers want a good, positive, and learning atmosphere which would be conducive to learning as well as teaching. In dealing with the actions of one student, we must ask ourselves what would be the outcome if all students conducted the same action. In addition, we must ask ourselves is this conduct acceptable for promoting our desired education or is it disruptive to our teachers and students educational process. We must ask ourselves, is this type of behavior the type of high standards we want in our classrooms. With this philosophy in mind and in regards to fighting and assault; school officials will do their best to determine who is guilty and who is not. School officials will do their best to insure that right wins over wrong and that justice will be served to the best of our ability. With this in mind; both parties or only one party may be suspended depending on the situation.

STROUD PUBLIC SCHOOL FIGHT POLICY

In the event of a fight or assault of any kind during any school day or school activity, the guilty party(s) will be suspended automatically for a period of nine (9) days on the first offense and an entire semester on the second offense.
